Dear Parent/Guardian:

Please be informed that Riverhead Central School District will offer a summer school program for students living within the Riverhead Central School District who have failed a course or a Regents examination. Students that failed a course or exam required for graduation are encouraged to enroll in summer school if that course/exam is offered. We are pleased to announce that Riverhead students will not be charged a registration fee for summer school classes. Please note that seats are limited; therefore, upperclassman will be given registration priority. Lastly, transportation will not be provided to and from summer school.
