

Pulaski P.R.I.D.E Defined

Patience

Patience is waiting calmly without complaining. An example of patience is someone standing peacefully in a long line.

Respect

Respect is to treat people, materials, and spaces with kindness and consideration. An example of respect is being quiet while waiting on line to use the restroom or listening to someone speak.

Inclusivity

Inclusivity is to include others in an activity whether you consider them a friend or not. An example of inclusivity is to invite someone to eat lunch with you.

Determination

Determination is never giving up - no matter how difficult something may appear. An example of determination is to continue trying to solve a math problem that is hard.

Encouragement

Encouragement is to recognize the strengths of others and compliment them. An example of encouragement is to tell someone that they are doing a good job.